Sir,

I, Karupally Sivarama Das, a resident of Karupally, near Kelamangalam, Hosur Taluk, Salem District, am desirous of starting a monthly journal in Kanada under my editorship.

It shall deal with Religion, Philosophy, Morals, mainly and with current events also. The paper will have nothing to do with political matters or subjects concerning Government or criticisms thereon. It shall be published in Bangalore City and Mr. K.S. Krishna Iyer, B.A., Proprietor of the Irish Press, has undertaken to print it in the Irish Press.

I have also made arrangements to live in Bangalore City from which place the journal will be published.

I am the author of several books in Telugu and they find a good circulation.

I therefore pray that you may be pleased to grant me permission to start the journal.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your D.O. No. S. 2953-3/G.H.158-16-9 dated the 29th August 1916 requesting to furnish a report on the character and antecedents of one Mr. Sivarama Das, I have to state that it is reported by the Police after due enquiry that Mr. Sivarama Das is a native of Maddigarai in the Hosur Taluk and owns some lands there, that he is said to be a person of respectability and good character and that he knows Telugu, Canarese and English.

2. With a view to form my own opinion about the applicant, I also sent for him and had a talk with him on the 9th instant. He is the Author of the marginally noted books in Telugu and he now proposes to start a Magazine with the name of "Anandachandrika" which will deal mostly with questions of Morality, Religion and Philosophy besides containing occasional notes of current news.

1. Surnamachendrodayam
2. Jeevakaruniyam
3. Life of Gokale
4. Janaranjanam
5. Kuchela Upakyanam

3. From what I could see of him, he appears to be intelligent and well educated, and I am of opinion that the permission applied for by him may be granted.

Yours Sincerely,

To
